

Mo Cheantar - Dumhach Thrá

Eoghan O'Neill

ETYMOLOGY

An early name for the area was Scal'd Hill or Scald Hill. During the 18th century, there was a village called Brickfield Town on the site of Sandymount Green this took its name from Lord Merrion's brickfields, which stretched from here to Merrion at the time.

TÍREOLAÍOCHT

Dumhach Thrá suite idir 3 agus 4 km soir ó dheas ó lár chathair Bhaile Átha Cliath.

Gabhann an Dothra in aice láimhe san iarthar, agus trí shruth, an Leamhain, Nutley agus Baile Átha Troim.

TRANSPORT

The area is served by the (DART) commuter rail system and two stops are located in the area, Sandymount and Sydney Parade.

Both railway stations (DART) were originally opened in January 1835 by the Dublin and Kingstown Railway and continue to this day.

TÚR MARTELLO

Timpeall leath bealaigh feadh na trá tá túr Martello Dhumhach Thrá.

Mar chuid de chóras cosanta a tógadh chun rabhadh a thabhairt faoi ionradh ag Napoleon.

Ba chaifé coitianta é "The Tower" i 1965

SPORT

Sandymount has three cricket clubs – YMCA.Pembroke and Railway Union, and a number of internationals line out for these clubs.

The GAA club Clanna Gael Fontenoy operates in the area, with grounds between Sandymount, Irishtown and Ringsend.

CREIDEAMH

Tá Church of St John of the Evangelist de chuid Eaglais na hÉireann suite ag barr St John's Road.

Tá an eaglais Chaitliceach i Rinn an Ghainimh tiomnaithe do Our Lady Star of the Sea

The Neighbourhood of Dublin
1921

Irish Railways
1997-2003

Dublin City Council
2021

